Lawyer jailed on fraud charges

WALLASEY solicitor William Eric Capper was sentenced to two years' imprisonment for fraud at Liverpool Crown Court. The sentence was concurrent on four charges of forgery, four obtaining money by deception and five of theft involving a total of £10,409.

Capper (59), of Wellington Road, pleaded guilty and asked for three offences involving a further £1,850 to be taken into consideration.

Mr. Justice Taylor ordered that in view of mitigation advanced by his defending counsel, Capper should serve only six months of the sentence the remainder being suspended for two years.

Mr. John Kay, prosecuting, said Capper was a partner in a firm of solicitors practising from Liverpool city centre. The charges related to the dishonest appropriation of money in two estates between March and December last year.

Mr. Ian Stanley, defending, said no private individual had suffered loss as the money in the first estate was going to the Crown and in the second estate to a church in America.

He said six years ago, while practising on his own, Capper suffered a stroke which kept him off work six months. When he later went into partnership with another solicitor they conducted their practises separately, but Capper's ability to cope following his illness was considerably diminished.

To cover his debts resulting from a reduced income he took out a £17,000 mortgage on his home and the repayments became a substantial part of his income. He was now unemployed, his House was sold and he was virtually bankrupt.

"He did not take the money to feather his own nest," said Mr. Stanley.

"His future is bleak. He will be struck off. He is unemployable in the legal field, by reason of his health and the unemployment situation generally, is probably totally unemployable. He has no assets and will live on social security."

Betrayed

The judge said Capper, as a member of an honourable profession and an officer of the court, had betrayed his trust regarding two estates, from which he took substantial sums of money for his own benefit on a number of occasions.

He had also forged documents when dealing with stockbrokers, banks and building societies.

TV GUIDE

It's no match, admit ITV

HADLEIGH (Granada 7.30) hardly merits its Best of British tag. If they really wanted to compete with Scotland v Brazil on BBC-1, ITV would have dug up something much better than the faded appeal of Gerald Harper as the country squire with the common touch. It's left to BBC-2 to offer the main alternative—Donovan's Reef, the last film John Wayne made with director John Ford.

It could be worth staying with BBC-2 later for Chains (9.15) which stars the engaging Michael Elphick as a 40-year-old called Eddie whose wife decides to celebrate his birthday by inviting along two of his mates from 20 years ago—the flash and successful Tosh and the downbeat and depressing Nell.

Eddie enthusiastically arranges a return trip to their old seaside chalet and the next weekend the former ton-up boys set out on their bikes in search of lost youth...

Reg Varney and Michael Robbins up to their necks in trouble On The Buses, Granada.

BIG MATCH SPOT

Scotland's World Cup dreams are put to the ultimate test tonight when they face the mighty Brazilians in Seville (B.B.C.-1). I don't envy goalkeeper Alan Rough. Some of his biggest blunders in the past have been captured by the TV cameras and given the painful action-replay treatment.

Brazil's stars can fire shots from all angles and Rough will need all his concentration. The Brazilian who impressed me most in their opening victory was Eder, who is prepared to shoot on sight with stunning power and accuracy.
