Dear Mr. Dickson,

Just a short note to advise you that Mr. Capper at Bartley, Cocks & Bird has returned to me the £2,000 which we discussed yesterday. It seems that he is no further forward with the purchase of your property and I have suggested, therefore, that the money remain here at the Bank for the time being until such time as he is able to proceed with the purchase.

Mr. Capper will advise me when he wishes to be put in funds but for the time being, your loan account will remain open with a Nil balance.

Yours sincerely,

M.H. Swain
Assistant Manager.
